Proceedings:

- The agenda regarding admission process of college was discussed and it was observed that number of students applying for admission under various programs being run in the college in various categories (SC/ST/OBC/others) exceeds the percentage of reserved categories than to general category.
- In order to address this issue and to benefit maximum students it was resolved by the members unanimously that after fulfilling the mandatory percentage of students seeking admission in reserved categories as per Punjab government reservation policy rules, the excess number of aspiring candidates can be adjusted in other vacant categories with the consent of students that they agree to take admission under such categories over and above.
